DETAILS INSIDE

CASEY TREES' TREE REBATE PROGRAM, funded by the District Department of the Environment (DDOE) provides rebates to individuals who purchase and plant a tree on private property — residential or commercial — in D.C.

Small and medium canopy trees are eligible for rebates up to $50 per tree and select species noted for their large canopy and environmental benefits qualify for rebates up to $100 per tree. There is no maximum number of rebates per property.

WHAT TREES ARE ELIGIBLE ?

Most tree species qualify for a rebate up to $50 including standard-size fruit trees as long as the tree reaches 15' tall and wide at maturity. The seven genera and 27 species - primarily oaks and hickories - that qualify for rebates up to $100 are listed at caseytrees.org/rebate.

NOTE Invasive tree species, any species of ash, dwarf trees and shrubs do not qualify.

HOW DO I RECEIVE MY REBATE ?

Complete and submit the attached tree rebate application with a purchase receipt for each tree. Two rebate requests per form. Additional applications available at caseytrees.org/rebate.
